

Asian American Engineers and Architects 2010 Scholarship Application

For the academic year 2010, Asian American Engineers and Architects of Houston (AAEA) will award four worthy scholars $1000 towards their college education. The purpose of this scholarship is to encourage the education of our youth beyond the high school level and to encourage dedication towards community involvement.

Eligibility: Applicants must be of Asian descent, must, at a minimum, be a graduating high school senior, pursuing an education beyond the high school level, have residency in the Houston Metropolitan area, not a relative of an AAEA Board Member or Officer, and have a commitment toward providing community service. Demonstration of financial need may be required if selected as a finalist. All scholars or scholars' parents must be available to attend the AAEA 25th Anniversary Gala on September 30, 2010.

AAEA will handle the application, selection, and award of the scholarship. The Scholarship Committee shall consider the following:

- Purpose and use of the scholarship
- The written essay
- Applicant's academic records, leadership, civic and community involvement
- Completion and submission of required application materials
- Clear indication of financial need may be considered *

All applicants will be evaluated based on academic achievement, financial need, leadership, community service, and extracurricular activities. * Demonstration of financial need may be required should there be a tie among finalists, no information is needed upon initial application submission. Interviews may be required.

Qualified applicants should submit the complete application postmarked no later than Tuesday, August 2, 2010. Late submissions will be disqualified. Please mail or hand deliver to:
